

I rely on XM Satellite radio to provide me with 24-hour, 7-day a week traffic and weather. None of the local stations in the St. Louis area offer that except during a few hours each morning or evening on the weekdays. That is ridiculous. Satellite radio should be filling the void that the local (usually nationally syndicated stations that play preprogrammed programs) stations fail to provide.